

PROFESSIONAL COURTESY

Karen Hickman

Children/Teen Etiquette Classes

(Ages 9-13)

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 12, 2017

11:00 AM-3:00 PM

BAKER STREET RESTAURANT

Cost: $145

(15% discount for second or more children in same family)

The skills taught in this one day class are skills that children can use now and for the rest of their lives. They can be built upon as they grow and mature helping youngsters understand the importance of consideration for others. It also helps develop confidence in situations that might otherwise be uncomfortable. The information is contemporary and helps youngsters navigate our challenging world.

The program includes...

The Power of Words

Meetings & Introductions

Developing Confidence in Meeting New Acquaintances

Handshaking with All Ages

Conversation & Listening Skills

Telephone Etiquette

Techno/Cell Phone Etiquette

Social Media Etiquette

The Etiquette of Public Places and more...

The ABC's of Table Manners

Napkins

Extending & Receiving Invitations

Being Served & Serving Yourself

Difficult to Eat Foods

Silverware, China, & Crystal

Do's & Don'ts of Dining

Thank-you Notes

Tipping

Karen Hickman, owner of Professional Courtesy is an etiquette and protocol consultant, trained and certified by The Protocol School of Washington, which is the leader in and is the first company to provide professional training and certification in etiquette and protocol. Consultants certified by The Protocol School of Washington are providing the highest quality programs and current information on this subject in North America and internationally.

To register your child e-mail Karen.Hickman@professionalcourtesyllc.com and request an application
Class size is limited to 24. Your check is your reservation. Payment via Paypal is accepted.